

"I wish you would listen to me."

"I've learned that it's OK to stutter."

"I will always remember Friends no matter how old I get."

"I learned that stutterers have lots of support, no matter what."

"I learned about dating, stuttering, and a little baseball."

"I wish you would 'get' me."

"More understanding of how stuttering affects my son"

"Stuttering makes my child extra special."

"To find ways to cope with this problem my son has"

"I wish you would let me express my opinions."

"I will always remember the friends I met and feeling so comfortable being myself."

"I learned that being with a friend in the dark is better than being alone in the light."

"I learned to be confident and you can still be a good communicator even if you stutter."
